Thaddeus Rex,

Thank you so much for your concert in Pelham Bay Park. The kids loved it! It was so much fun to see such a large group of children singing along with Reading Books and listening intently to your story about the Martian Television Invasion. I couldn't stop smiling!!

I received lots of comments afterwards from counselors and parents. City Parks Foundation and The New York City Dept. of Parks & Recreation hope to have you perform in other park venues next summer in our children's performance series.

I am glad we made the connection. Looking forward to 2005.

All the Best,

M. Patric Epstein
